

Spring 2019 Newsletter

Hi everyone,

I do believe spring has sprung for had the first fly in my house couple weeks ago, gophers are out in full swing but more so, was excited to see the first Robin of the year just last week. Never did hold much confidence to Phil, the groundhog seeing (or not) his shadow to predict spring, lol.

Although my bones disagree, I did enjoy participating in a couple tournaments in Calgary over the winter. I do envy those members that are close enough to Calgary to enjoy pitching at the Calgary Clubhouse on a weekly basis over the course of our very long Alberta winter. Kudo's to the Calgary Horseshoe Club for taking the time to host them!

Speaking of tournaments. Our Clubs are small, and I would like to encourage YOU to pitch in and assist YOUR club with pre-tournament planning as well as all that needs to be tended to during the tournament weekend play. It is a huge responsibility and undertaking and unfortunately it is the same "mere handful" of club members that assist? Ask your President what you can do to help. Get your family and/or friends to assist enabling you to participate in the tournament as well. Work together with another Club by assisting with each other's tournament. Just some examples but something to ponder: Bentley & Lacombe, Ponoka & Wetaskiwin, Innisfail & Red Deer?

Besides a huge undertaking in hosting a tournament, there are numerous expenses involved so I encourage you to pre-register. I recall Wetaskiwin's 2nd Sanctioned Tournament whereby we anticipated 40+ participants like our first one but had only about 25 and less yet on Sunday. Our club took a huge loss in food costs. Anticipated income from lunches, silent auction and 50/50 was to go towards tournament expenses and publicized bigger prize payouts. So please, club tournament contacts are in the Newsletter. Let them know if you will be attending or not. Thank you!

The AHPA Brochures are ready for YOU to distribute. Grab some from an AHPA Executive or Zone Director and let's get them distributed across Alberta! Keep a few in your vehicle for that unexpected conversation you may have with someone in the parking lot, grocery store or bank. On my computer I made up some Wetaskiwin Horseshoe Club business cards and have them stapled to brochures that I keep in my car and RV.

Last but not least, NEW this year is a "Rant & Rave" comment box that will be at every tournament. Please utilize it. Positive comments always welcome; even if as simple as the lunch was delicious, or what a great tournament. Everyone likes accolades! Suggestions are welcome like perhaps paint the pegs next year as was difficult to see. And I want this to be the place you "rant" in. PLEASE, no more parking lot negative chatter. Gail (Secretary) and I will review Rant & Raves after each tournament and forward Raves to appropriate persons and Rants can be addressed either by myself or brought forth to the Executive for appropriate measures. Tournaments held by our own personal club, another Executive would review comments in our place.

Happy pitching everyone! Can't wait to see you all on the courts again!

Innisfail and Council Special Horseshoe Tournament

Hi members,

Heads up for what's happening the 25 & 26 of May tournament. This will be the last tournament at the current site. So we have decided to have a special tournament.

The lunch will be free to all players. Hopefully a sponsor will take care of this, if not, the club will.

There will be a live auction, with a real auctioneer. 2 or 3 good items will be auctioned. We should have some fun with this. This will be done at lunch time.

The courts will be moved right after the tournament, south down the street, to a nice green park. We will be putting in 10 courts. The town is moving the courts with no expense or work to us.

We will have 2 courts to sell. The pegs and rubber bottoms, mainly. Also, the 48 walkways, 20" wide, 16' long, 3" deep, will be for sale. They are in good shape yet. They can be used for lots of things.

Our entry fee is still $10.00, $20.00 for the 2 days.

We are working on getting sponsors so there will be added prize money. We hope to make this tournament full of fun and sportsmanship.

Looking forward to seeing you there,

Best regards,

Innisfail Horseshoe Club
