President's Spring Message

AHPA members

I keep looking out of my back window at my mostly snow-covered horseshoe pits, and I pine for the days when I will be able to get out there and pitch. Mother Nature has this delightful sense of humor, where one day it starts to uncover the pits, followed by 5 or 6 days that she just laughs. I really hope the horseshoe gods are scowling at her, no matter what they think of me. Horseshoe gods can be so cruel.

Things since my last letter to the membership have been reasonably quiet and calm. We have had some tremors and uncertainty, but for the most part, we have grown and prospered. The Calgary Horseshoe Club has been busy holding monthly tournaments and the participation has been good. I wish I could say that it had been great, but I will take what I can get. Convincing members that you don't have to be really good at the sport to compete in a tournament has been a hard uphill battle, but I have noticed that there are more and more first-time participants in each event. Let's keep up the increase.

Round Robin in the Rockies event went very well, and I want to recognize the out-of-town pitchers that attended. Tom Moffat from British Columbia, the current World Tournament 30-foot Champion. Lindsey Hodgins, from Elk Point, Alberta, past World Tournament and current Canadian Champion. Cal Beaudoin, from Spruce Grove, Alberta, 3rd place finisher at last year's World Tournament in the Men's Championship class. Cal only lost to Alan Francis and Dan Watson, and that in itself is a remarkable feat. Jane Cordingley, past Canadian Ladies Champion from Calgary, and Dave Burrows, a competitor in the 30-foot Championship class made up the rest of the 'A' class for this prestigious event.

Speaking of Tom and Cal, they were both recognized by their respective communities, Victoria and Spruce Grove, for their outstanding achievements in the sport of horseshoe pitching. Please join me in congratulating them.

Well, spring is almost here, and I am looking forward to playing outdoors and I am anticipating meeting more of the members of this great organization. I know I keep saying it, and I am going to continue saying it, I think this is a great sport and I love the game. Keep pitching and many ringers to everyone.

Mike Holley
